THIRD SUNDAY OF

Easter

APRIL 15, 2018

Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day
and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations.

Lighthouse CD Spotlight

Just in Time For Confirmation!

Presented by Lighthouse
Catholic Youth:

It is through the Sacrament of Confirmation that a Catholic is fully initiated into the Church. Why then do so many newly confirmed Catholics never come back? In this talk, Fr. Mike Schmitz addresses this concerning trend in the Catholic Church with honesty, energy, and humor. Focusing on the true nature of Confirmation, Fr. Mike challenges ALL Catholics to see this sacrament not as a "graduation" from the Church, but as a commissioning by the Holy Spirit to go out into the world and proclaim the Gospel.

CD's Available in the Gathering Space for $3.00 Each.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The beauty and reverence of the sacred liturgies during the Holy Triduum are enriched by the active participation of all parishioners who join in prayer and celebration of our Lord's Passion, Death, and Resurrection. I am pleased to see such vigorous faith and spirituality alive in St. Pius X Parish.

Much planning and work was done to make our Holy Week a time of prayerful worship in remembrance of God's greatest gift to us. I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the many people who tirelessly contributed time and talents, sometimes late into the evening, to create an environment conducive to sacred worship:

Deacons
Music Director, Choir, and Musicians
Liturgical Environment Committee
Altar Servers
Sacristans and Liturgy Coordinators
Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Ministers of Hospitality
RCIA and Sacramental Preparation Catechists
Fellowship Ministry
Pastoral Council
St. Pius X Parish Staff
All who made a donation for Easter flowers
Everyone who participated in the Liturgies and all who contributed to the Easter collection in support of our ministries.

I pray that the Lord will continue to bless our parish as we work together to grow in Christian faith and love.

Sincerely yours in the Risen Christ,

Fr. George Zięba, C.R.
Pastor

SE NECESITAN TESTIGOS

1.- Dios lo resucitó de entre los muertos. Pedro, tras la curación del tullido en la Puerta Hermosa del Templo pronuncia este segundo discurso. Tras la admiración que ha provocado el milagro, proclama la resurrección de Jesús y su papel en la salvación de los hombres. Los que reciben con asombro este signo de curación son invitados por la palabra de Pedro a descubrir su sentido. No basta con saber para salir de la ignorancia. Ellos, por ignorancia, mataron al autor de la vida, pero Dios lo resucitó de entre los muertos. Ahora ya lo saben, pero no basta con descubrirlo, es necesario cambiar de actitud para salir de la ignorancia: "arrepentíos y convertíos". Aceptar que el paralítico ha sido curado en nombre de Jesús es aceptar que el resucitado es el Dios de la vida, actúa en la vida y transforma nuestra experiencia por el perdón que sigue al arrepentimiento. A pesar del mal y de la muerte, la vida sigue siendo posible por Cristo resucitado. El discurso de Pedro señala dos ideas fundamentales:

--Jesús, el siervo de Dios crucificado, es autor y dador de vida, el origen y el que nos guía hasta ella porque venció a la muerte con su resurrección.

-- El milagro ha sido realizado porque el enfermo tenía fe en el "nombre de Jesús". La fe es una condición indispensable para gozar de la vida en plenitud.

2.- Testigos de la resurrección. El evangelio de San Lucas de este domingo es la continuación de la aparición a los discípulos de Emaús. Ellos le reconocieron y volvieron a Jerusalén a contárselo a todos. Reconocieron que "era verdad, ha resucitado el Señor y se ha aparecido a Simón". Pedro fue de los primeros en reconocer al Señor resucitado después de las mujeres que fueron al sepulcro. Hay dos cosas que nos llaman la atención:

-- No basta con que alguien hable de la resurrección, sino que es necesario tener experiencia del resucitado. Esta experiencia es personal e intransferible, poco a poco la van teniendo los discípulos. Cuando recibieron a los dos de Emaús estaban comentando lo que les había sucedido por el camino y cómo lo habían reconocido al partir el pan. Pero ahora Jesús toma de nuevo la iniciativa y se hace presente en medio de los discípulos. La insistencia en que le palpen las manos y los pies es porque quiere demostrarles que Él es el mismo que murió en la cruz. Muerte y resurrección van unidas. Se cumplen así las Escrituras: el Mesías padecerá, pero resucitará al tercer día. Comprendemos que dice al tercer día porque para los judíos uno no estaba definitivamente muerto hasta que pasaban tres días del óbito. Así se aseguraban totalmente de que no enterraban a un ser vivo. Sólo entonces procedían a encerrarle definitivamente en el sepulcro.

--Jesús les pide a los discípulos, también a nosotros, que sean testigos de la resurrección, que anuncien la conversión y el perdón de los pecados, comenzando por Jerusalén. Testigo es aquél que no sólo ha visto o ha oído, sino que sobre todo ha experimentado algo que ha transformado su vida. Entonces no le queda más remedio que comunicarlo a todos. Podemos preguntarnos: ¿Cómo puedo ser testigo aquí y ahora de la experiencia de Cristo resucitado?

En nuestro tiempo se necesitan testigos antes que maestros. La experiencia de fe no se transmite de memoria o por lo que hemos aprendido en los libros, sólo nuestro testimonio será creíble si lo que decimos lo hemos experimentado antes en nuestra vida. Es un mandato del Señor resucitado dar testimonio de nuestra fe.

DEANERY AND DIOCESAN NEWS

The Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal helps our parish and the Diocese of Joliet to provide countless ministries, programs and services to support our friends and neighbors in immeasurable ways.

A mailing will soon be sent to all parishioners who have not yet made a gift to the CMAA. Despite the severe February snowstorm we encountered over Commitment (In-Pew) Weekend, we are confident we can still meet our goal if we all partner together. If you have not done so already, I ask that you please reflect on God's gifts to you and prayerfully consider supporting the CMAA. A gift to the CMAA, no matter the amount, will make a difference!

By partnering together, we can continue to spread the Gospel message in our Diocese through our ministries. Thank you for your support.

Bernadette Soubirous was born in 1844. Her devout Catholic parents struggled to provide for their children. God saw the beauty of Bernadette's simple, humble soul. In 1858, God sent the Blessed Virgin Mary to Bernadette with a message for the world.

The Blessed Virgin emphasized the need for reparation and prayer for the conversion of sinners, requested that a chapel be built on the site of the apparitions, and provided a miraculous spring that has healed many people from terrible diseases. St. Bernadette died at the age of thirty-five in 1879. Her body is incorrupt and can still be viewed to this day.
