Mary Immaculate Queen

Once again, we turn to Our Lady, Our Beloved Queen, with renewed faith and trust. What better expression of our abiding love and devotion to Mary than to welcome Mary Immaculate Queen into our homes and enthrone her in a place of honor? Alongside the Sacred Heart of Jesus, may Mary Immaculate Queen have a special place in your home, reminding us each day of her loving maternal presence and care.

Welcoming the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary Immaculate Queen into our homes can be a beautiful source of grace and blessing for the home, the family, and all its members.

We invite you to once again turn to Our Queen and Mother, seeking her maternal love, guidance, and protection for you and your family.

Gospel Reflection

Matthew 22:15-21

Occasionally, I'll slip into a parish I've never visited before, pick up the bulletin, and find one of my Gospel reflections. My heart usually swells with a bit of affection for my creation. I imprint a bit of myself into my little "literary labors of love." Anyone who has created something — a piece of writing, a garden, a meal, a child — knows that feeling. We love the things into which we put ourselves. We are happy when they return to us. With this in mind, listen to Jesus' classic line in this Sunday's Gospel: "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). He presents this little riddle to deepen the theme from taxes to human beings. A Roman coin bears Caesar's image, so it belongs to Caesar. Therefore, he has a legitimate claim to it. Fair enough. But what belongs to God? What bears His image? Every human being. God has imprinted Himself on every person. Which means everyone — including Caesar — belongs entirely to Him. Jesus, who is God's perfect image, has come to draw everyone back to God. We can be tempted to imagine that our lives are made up of "things for God" and "things not for God." The good news is that no such division is possible because everything in life is a gift from God to us. Therefore, all is meant to be placed at the service of God's kingdom. He loves everything He has created. We have the privilege of giving it all back to Him. — Father John Muir

Stewardship Reflection

IS 45:1, 4-6; PS 96:1, 3-5, 7-10; 1 THES 1:1-5B; MT 22:15-21

Today's readings remind us to be mindful not only of who we are, but also Whose we are.

In today's Gospel, the Pharisees attempt to trap Jesus by asking whether it is lawful to pay the tax to Caesar. Their question is meant to force Him into choosing sides. But Jesus refuses to be drawn into their narrow way of thinking.

Instead, He asks whose image appears on the coin. When they answer, "Caesar," Jesus responds, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Those words remind us that while we have responsibilities in this world, our first allegiance belongs to God. Everything we have comes from Him, and through Baptism we have become His sons and daughters.

Our time, our talents, our treasure, and our very lives are gifts entrusted to us by the Lord. May we use them each day in grateful response to His goodness, remembering that we belong to Him above all else.

Reflexión del Evangelio

Mateo 22:15-21

“Devuelvan, pues, al César las cosas del César y a Dios lo que le corresponde a Dios” (Mateo 22:21). Con esta respuesta, Jesús calla a las personas que lo querían poner a prueba para desacreditarlo públicamente, tendiéndole una trampa para que cayera. Pero Jesús clarifica su pregunta y dice claramente lo que se debe hacer en cada caso. ¿Qué imagen llevamos en nuestro corazón: la del César o la de Dios? El Evangelio nos invita hoy a saber discernir nuestras prioridades, a no confundir a Dios con el César de nuestros caprichos. Dios está por encima de todo eso. Somos imagen de Dios, grabada el día de nuestro bautismo. Debemos ser creyentes a tiempo completo, en todos los niveles, públicos y privados, en todo lo que hacemos y con todos los que nos rodean.

“El dinero no hay que demonizarlo en sentido absoluto. El dinero sirve para llevar adelante muchas cosas buenas, muchos trabajos, para desarrollar la humanidad. Lo que hay que condenar, en cambio, es su uso distorsionado” (Papa Francisco, 21-10-2013). Catequesis de hoy: darnos cuenta de que todo lo que pasa en el mundo es inferior al Reino de Dios. El dominio de Dios es la justicia y la misericordia que ejerce sobre toda persona. Entonces, no hay que confundir las cosas. Dar a Dios lo que le corresponde está basado en el amor al prójimo, dando amor y generosidad, lo cual es todo lo contrario a lo que el mundo exige. Nuestra energía y nuestros talentos siempre deben ser dirigidos a los hermanos y a Dios.— ©LPi
